

Multimedia Overview

The Multimedia tool allows you store any media files that you need for your module. This includes audio or video files and external links such as from YouTube. You can also create a playlist if you need your media to be consumed in a particular order.