What is iThenticate?

iThenticate allows post-graduate students and researchers to check their own work for possible instances of plagiarism.

iThenticate scans the document for similarities with a variety of databases. It then generates a report which highlights possible plagiarized paragraphs and provides the corresponding source(s).

iThenticate FAQ